Inspired by events that originated in California, Earth Day has become a global movement that occurs every year on April 22nd. Earth Day continues to stand as reminder to organizations, communities and people of the importance of environmental protection from pollution.

The California Environmental Protection Agency (CalEPA) is continuing the legacy by turning Earth Day into Earth Month. Throughout the month and leading up to April 22nd, CalEPA hopes to inspire Californians to:

- Act now by cleaning local spaces, planting trees or preserving spaces for your community to thrive.
- Amplify change by sharing individual or community experiences and stories on a global scale using the #EarthDay on social media.
- Save our planet by taking small steps to conserve resources, reduce waste and protect our environment. Just as the actions we take are important, the things we donâ?t do are equally important.

Act today. Amplify your stories to inspire hope. Save reusables to reduce waste for a better tomorrow. Pollution not only affects air, land and water but also directly impacts public health. Everyone across the Golden State deserves a healthy and thriving environment free from pollution.

Join us! Act Today. Amplify Change. Save air, water and land from pollution.

- ACT: Participate in our 2026 Earth Day Twitter (X) Chat.
 - #EarthDayChat
 - Wednesday, April 22, from 10-11 a.m. (Pacific Time)

- AMPLIFY: Share how you’re doing your part to inspire hope and others to commit to change.
 - Use hashtags like #EarthDay #Act #Amplify and #Save.
 - Toolkit
- SAVE: What small steps are you taking to save plastics from landfills, reduce waste and save the air from emissions?
 - Did you know?
 - By using a re-usable water bottle you’re saving hundreds of plastic from landfills
 - By using the dishwasher instead of handwashing you’re saving 24 gallons of water
 - Making the choice to ride a bike, take public transit or drive an EV, you’re sparing the air and reducing air quality health risks in your community
