

2007 Cal/EPA Environmental Justice Grant Recipients

Applicant	Project Title	Funding	Summary	Project Area
California Rural Legal Assistance	Indigenous Farm worker Pesticide Health Project	$20,000	CRLA will conduct outreach and educate approximately 800 Triqui and Mixteco indigenous farm workers in Salinas area regarding pesticide health and safety through written materials, radio, and trainings.	Salinas, CA
Del Amo Action Committee	Los Angeles Environmental Justice Network: Enhanced Participation in Cal/EPA Environmental Decision-Making	$19,900	Del Amo Action Committee will facilitate EJ grassroots organizations from Los Angeles to participate in Cal/EPA meetings in Sacramento.	San Pedro, CA
Ditching Dirty Diesel Collaborative	Reducing Community Environmental Health Impacts of Diesel Pollution in the Bay Area	$20,000	The Collaborative will facilitate community outreach and education on goods movement activities to enhance participation in diesel pollution reduction decision-making in the Oakland port, airport, and major freight corridors.	Oakland, CA
Environmental Health Coalition	Salud Ambiental, Latinos Tomando Accion-Energia	$19,114	EHC will conduct a five-part program to educate Chula Vista residents on the relationship between EJ and climate change, and enable participation in the creation of a sustainable energy plan.	Chula Vista, CA
Golden Gate Audubon Society	Eco-Oakland Environmental Education Program	$20,000	Golden Gate Audubon Society will conduct an elementary education program in east Oakland reaching more than 3000 children and community members through hands-on activities and presentations on fish contamination and water quality.	Oakland, CA
Kirk Tribe	Karuk Tribe Environmental Justice Grant	$20,000	Karuk Tribe will conduct research on freshwater mussels to document any link between water quality or food contamination on a traditional tribal food.	Happy Camp, CA
Lao Khmu Association	Southeast Asian Seafood Consumer Education	$19,815	Lao Khmu Association will educate southeast Asians (e.g., Hmong, Lao, Thai, Vietnamese, Cambodian, Mien) in San Joaquin County through community forums, public events, and merchant education.	Stockton, CA
Literacy for Environmental Justice	Community-Based Research, Education, and Participation in Bayview Hunters Point, San Francisco	$19,349	LEJ will conduct a youth-driven participatory process for input to the shipyard redevelopment process which will feed into an existing Restoration Advisory Board process.	San Francisco, CA

2007 Cal/EPA Environmental Justice Grant Recipients

Applicant	Project Title	Funding	Summary	Project Area
Pacific Institute	Technical Assistance on Goods Movement and the Marine Air Quality Improvement Plan in West Oakland	$19,965	Pacific Institute will provide education and technical assistance to community stakeholders participating in the Task Force for the Port of Oakland Marine Air Quality Improvement Plan. The project will provide outreach to a broad range of community stakeholders to understand the options for emission reduction measures as well as the broader regulatory and economic framework to help these stakeholders evaluate various options.	Oakland, CA
Todo Unidos	Eat Delta Fish Safely	$19,352	Todos Unidos will raise awareness and educate Latino families on fish contamination in the Delta watershed (e.g., East Contra Costa County) at six workshops, public events, public service announcements, the Unidos webpage and radio.	Antioch, CA
United Cambodian Families	Health Fish Education Program	$20,000	UCF will expand its current fish contamination awareness efforts to focus on youths and seniors in Stockton.	Stockton, CA
Urban Habitat	Community Participation in the Richmond General Plan Update	$20,000	Urban Habitat will encourage community participation in the Richmond General Plan development process through leadership development, research, and policy analysis, educating local groups, and drafting community feedback.	Oakland, Ca
Vista Community Clinic	VCC Farm Worker Health and Safety Project	$19,969	VCC will expand the activities of its Farm Worker Health and Safety Project to reach an additional 1,500 underserved, uninsured agricultural workers to prevent improper handling and disposal of pesticides. This project will provide a trained promotor to reinforce educational messages and allowing monitoring of adherence to pesticide safety training. E-waste education will also be provided at 10 agricultural work and living sites.	Vista, CA
West County Toxics Coalition	West Contra Costa Environmental Indicators Project	$20,000	WCTC will produce an environmental indicators report for West Contra Costa County. WCTC will also conduct trainings and workshops for the community and have members identify a vision for their community, identify environmental issues needing more data, and prioritize issues for action.	Antioch, CA
Yurok Tribe	Yurok Tribe Environmental Justice Beneficial Uses and Water Quality Education Project	$19,871	The Yurok Tribe will collect data on perceptions of risk of Blue Green Algae (BGA), effects of these perceptions on river usage, and actual risks of BGA to tribal members through tribal member interview surveys and scoping meetings. The information collection will be compiled into a report and distributed to the tribal community.	Klamath, CA