

California-Mexico

Energy Collaboration

California-Mexico Border Relations Council

Alana Sanchez
International Relations Senior Advisor
California Energy Commission
March 27, 2019

Furthering Engagement (2015 - 2017)

- Trade Mission 2015
- Clean Energy Workshop
- Under2 Coalition
 - 16 members
 - National Endorser
- CRE Commissioners Visit to California
 - Net-Energy Metering
- Capitol Advocacy Day

Clean Energy MOUs

- Organized around the need to reduce emissions globally to keep global temperature rise below 2 degrees Celsius
- MOUs foster sharing of information and innovation around decarbonizing energy sector
- Especially related to promotion of academic exchange, promoting cross-border trade and business opportunities and sharing information on energy efficiency and renewable integration

UC-Davis/UAG Lighting Center

UC Davis, Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara, and SENER

Current and Future Engagement

- Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara Energy Efficient Lighting Center
 - Official Meeting/EE Technical and Policy Exchange – April 27, 2019
- Baja Norte Engagement – Led by Stanford University, the Institute of the Americas, and the California Energy Commission
 - Baja Norte Gubernatorial Election in June
 - Focus on water, energy, environment
 - Pre-Meeting/Larger event in Fall or Winter
- Participation on the Good Neighbor Environmental Board – Advisor Early
- Mexico's Approach to Energy under the new administration
- AMLO visit to California in May?
- Opportunities to renew California's MOU with Mexico's National Ministry of Energy
 - Working with CONUEE on engagement with SENER on energy efficiency

¡Gracias!

Preguntas?

Alana Sanchez

International Relations Senior Advisor

California Energy Commission

Alana.Sanchez@energy.ca.gov

916-653-5721